FILE No. 48-05

SERIAL No.

TO THE DEWAN OF MYSORE

FOR ORDERS.

No 75
Ex 4

DATED 7th October 1905

SUBJECT.

Permission for the Local Service Regiment to take part in the Artillery Practice Camp at Birasandra in January 1906.

I submit the enclosed correspondence received from the Residency enquiring whether the Durbar will allow the Local Service Regiment to take part in the above practice Camp.

The Chief Commandant to whom the above letter was forwarded for opinion states that the Local Service Regiment will be required at Mysore in connection with the Royal visit.

I therefore propose with your approval replying to the Resident in the terms of the draft enclosed herein.

Lieut. Col.
Military Assistant.

No. 2308, dated 5th September 1905.

Enclosure to 818

From.- Major C.Roe,

D.A.A.General, Bangalore Brigade.

To.- The First Assistant Resident,

Bangalore.

It is proposed to hold the Royal Artillery Practice Camp at Birasandra in January next.

2. I am directed therefore to ask you if it would be agreeable to His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, that one or more squadrons of the Mysore Local Service Regiment of Cavalry should attend the Camp.

3. Whilst their services would be an assistance to the Artillery at the Camp, the Cavalry would, at the same time, gain useful experience.
